Pahokee Council Will Make Plans For Recreation

The Pahokee City Council at its meeting Friday night was informed by a representative of the Better Business Men's League that John Estricher of Miami was interested in erecting a meat packing plant on land adjoining the site of the Pahokee State Farmers' Market. The proposed plant would be built at an estimated cost of $35,000 and would have an annual payroll of approximately $35,000, it was said.

The Council was asked to assist in the purchase of two acres of land adjoining the market which would be necessary for the operation of the plant. The group agreed to contact owners of land that would be suitable for the plant and suggested that Mr. Estricher meet with them at the

The urgent need of a public park and playground for children of the community was again brought to the attention of the Council by the Pahokee Recreation Committee which is composed of representatives from various local civic clubs. The committee was formed to organize and manage supervised playground activities for children and asked the city to provide land for the purpose. The Council announced that it would negotiate with Willard Smith for the purchase of a tract adjoining the city.

The group also met with the Federal Works Administration to discuss a survey of sewerage facilities in this area with recommendations for improvements in local sewage disposal systems.

Mr. W. J. Larrimore, city librarian, was authorized to announce a change in the city library opening hours for the summer. Until further notice the library will close at noon on Saturdays and will open at 2 p. m. on Mondays.

GI Brings Money Order Home After

European Trip

A $75 money order sewed in the pants of a Canal Point GI traveled from New York to the European battlefield, went through the machine shell fire, escaped the handings of Nazis, escaped

The story and the money order, was brought back here by the GI himself, Tech. Sgt. Louis H. Adams, now visiting his sister, Mrs. H. G. McGouirk, in Canada.

Feb. 9, the soldier made out the money order to his sister in New York City, and before he had a chance to mail it, he was shipped out. For safekeeping, he sewed the money order in the cuff of his trousers. In the Rhine crossing, was captured and thrown into German prison camp. All he had left after Nazi extermination was his pants—and the money order. Liberated about three days before VE Day, the GI was sent home—and delivered the money order in person to his family.

BIBLE CLASS
Last Sunday the question in the Shokee Men's Bible Class, "Was he reckoned the same in Adam's day as now—did Adam actually live 930 years according to our Bible?" This, and other questions presented by the lesson will be dis-ass by the teacher and class Sunday. The Class Quartet will present two selections. A cordial invitation is extended to all unaffiliated men of the community, service men and visitors. The class meets each Sunday morning in the Lions' Building at
